Contributions are not tax deductible. San Jose Election Law requires us to publicly report all contributions in detail no matter the amount. We may not deposit your contribution without your name, street address (no PO Boxes please), occupation and employer information from individual contributors. We may not accept contributions of $100 or more by cashiers check, money order or cash.

In making this contribution the contributor affirms they: 1) are a US citizen or permanent resident (green card holder.) 2) you are at least 18 years of age. 3) are using their own funds and not being reimbursed for their contribution. 4) that they are not a cardroom or a cardroom owner, officer, key management employee of a cardroom or a spouse of the aforementioned.

Contributions from any one individual or entity may not exceed $700 for the election cycle. Contributions from an individual and an entity controlled by that individual are subject to one $700 contribution limit. Any contribution to this campaign may be transferred to this candidate's campaign for reelection or another city or non city campaign at Rolando Bonilla's sole discretion.
